UP & COMING AT UAWB

Keeping you in the loop

Hi <<First Name>>.

We hope you're staying safe and coping well in Level 3! As with the last lockdown, here's hoping that the resilience, kindness and positivity of Kiwis will see us through once again.

Luckily, UAWB is no stranger to making things happen from home - in fact, UAWB was founded during the last lockdown! The team at UAWB is now hustling to bring you more exciting events and initiatives:

☆ We're going virtual with our interactive Masterclass series (Part 1): Breaking Glass Ceilings (via Zoom) on Wednesday 26th Aug, 4.30pm-6pm!

☆ A new Instagram series, "People of UAWB", to celebrate UAWB members and stay connected with each other!

☆ In need of a break? Keep your eyes open on our Instagram for challenges that you can join in!

Most importantly, we hope you feel supported! If you're struggling in any way, feel free to contact info@uawb.org and we will refer you to someone who might be able to help - remember, we're in this together.

UPCOMING EVENTS

UAWB is excited to bring to you the first of our two-part Masterclass series!

In this interactive session 'Breaking Glass Ceilings', we will be joined by Jennifer Young (founder of Intentional Generations and Jen Y Insights) who will run a FREE leadership coaching session for UAWB members! 🥰 🍷

Befriend your inner critic, and harness your leadership potential to overcome those obstacles in the business field. ✨

In light of COVID-19 and these times of uncertainty, Jen will also be touching on themes around well-being and maintaining a positive mindset 🌟
