UP & COMING AT UAWB

Keeping you in the loop

Hi <<First Name>>.

Kia ora!

We hope that exams have gone well and that you're enjoying your mid-sem breaks and

Last semester we hosted a range of events with highlights including our launch for the year, Foodstuffs Becoming a Boss panel, and mentoring programme, 'UAWB Connect' launch. We hope that these events have created opportunities for you to meet other like-minded students, network with those in industry and help shape both your professional and leadership skills.

We've loved meeting heaps of you at our events and are thrilled to be offering just as many awesome events in semester two as we enter the last half of UAWB's first full year. Some initiatives to look forward to include our PwC Leadership Bootcamp, UBS Sip & Paint social event, and Spark Technology Challenge.

Lastly, UAWB is turning one soon having been founded in semester 2 2020! Since that time we've hit multiple milestones including being shortlisted for 'best new club in 2020' and have built an incredible community of students and industry professionals dedicated to female empowerment in business. To celebrate, we have some incredible giveaways planned especially in re-o'week of sem 2 so make sure you're following us on social media to avoid missing out.

We hope you enjoy the rest of your break and look forward to seeing you all at our events next semester!

Our mentorship program, 'UAWB Connect' has kicked off 🚀, led by our Director of Leadership Projects Ayesha Goel, and what a win to celebrate! The vision of UAWB Connect is to provide a support system for young womxn at UoA, to help them succeed in business environments and achieve their highest potential. We couldn't be more excited to help foster these valuable mentorship experiences allowing members to upskill, meet like-minded people, and action female support and empowerment! 😊

The UAWB Connect Introduction night was graciously hosted at the EY Britomart offices, with the support of the EY Campus Recruitment Team. The evening was filled with excitement, positivity, and laughter from the mentors and mentees while participating in some active 🧩 ice-breakers. Throughout the night, mentors and mentees got to know each other, and understand their goals, responsibilities, and expectations, while enjoying some delicious nibbles and drinks.

We look forward to re-connecting with all the mentors and mentees at the UAWB Connect events planned for Semester 2!

"My first meet up with Jocie was a lot of fun! It was great getting to know each other better and seeing how we could make the most of the mentorship" - Rebecca

"It was awesome to be in a room with like-minded women who want to provide a better experience for first-years through mentorship. I had a lot of fun connecting and getting to know Rebecca at our first meetup, and I cannot wait for what the future holds for her!" - Jocie

Becoming a Boss: Building a Personal Brand and Breaking Barriers!

Foodstuffs x UAWB Panel

This was the title of our collaborative panel with our amazing sponsor Foodstuffs New Zealand, lead by Emma McDonnell, our Director of Professional Development. Thank you to all who came along and asked brilliant questions about resiliency, personal brand, and what it's like working in a male-dominated environment 🙋🙋. In response to those questions, our wonderful panelists Niah Taylor

And typical to UAWB's brand, there were some delicious Best Ugly Bagels and Kombucha as a lunch treat for everyone to enjoy, as well as some sweet giveaways 😊! Thanks again to Foodstuffs for providing merch and New World gift cards to share with you all.

Overall we hope everyone who went was able to gain at least one valuable takeaway, as it's often best to learn first hand from someone older and more experienced.

If you missed out on this event or to be a mentor/mentee as part of the UAWB Connect event please stay tuned for the rest of our semester 2 events as you'll get plenty of opportunities to network, learn, apply new skills, and have fun with like-minded people!
